A TRESTLE GIVES WAY BENEATH A GEORGIA PASSENGER TRAIN.

Twenty-Three Killed and Thirty-Three In-Jured-George Gould and Wife Among the Latter-An Eye-Witness' Story-The List of the Killed and Injured

WAYCROSS, Ga., March 20.-The Cuban fast mail train No. 27, on the Savannah, Florida & Western, leaving Savannah at 7 o'clock a. m., went through Hurricane river trestle, one and a half mile east of Blackshear, at 9:30 a. m. Saturday morning, killing twenty-three persons and also wouldlng thirty-three, including George Gould and wife, President Wilbur, of the Lehigh Vailey railroad, and Gen. Ferrero and wife, of New The Supreme Court Decides in Favor of York. The entire train, consisting of baggage car, smoker, one day coach, Puilmau sleeper Saxon, and the private car Minerva, of President Wilhnr, was a total wreck. The only car not broken into splinters was the Minerva.

The trestle of the Hurricane river is about eight hundred feet in length, and the break includes four hundred feet at the west end, the teuder and the engine lodging against the abutment. The baggage car left the track on the trestle, knocking the structure down. It was this car that careened the rear cars and by its strain dragged the tender down, the engine baving safely crossed over. The accident was caused, probably, by a broken truck under the front end of the bag-

Had it not been for the presence of mind of Engineer Richard Welch a much more horrible fate would have been in store for the wounded. Hurriedly dispatching the engine with a fireman to Blackshear, he ran down to the wreck, and with the assistance of the porter of the Pullman car Minerva, extinguished the fire which had

The Story of an Eye-Witness. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 20.-M. C.

Deming, general ticket agent of the Jacksonville, Tampa & Key West railroad, a passenger on the second section of No, 27, says: "In all my oxperience I never saw a wreck the former shape left of the first two cars. They were completely broken to fragments, It is miraculous how any one escaped.

"The fourth car, occupied by Mr. Gould and party, although badly damaged, was not a complete wreck. The end of the last car was telescoped into Mr. Gould's car. The latter, President Wilber's private car, contained twelve persons. There were three fortunate things which no doubt lessened the list of; ensualties. That portion of the trestle directly over the stream dld not fall, and the cars were thrown into a dry place. In wet wenther the whole place is overflowed, but at the present time the stream is confined to a narrow bed. The fire was put out before any harm was done, and the weather was clear and pleasant. "The locomotive barely got across the chasm, the tender having dropped down on one end of the baggage car. The news of the accident was soon carried to Blackshear, and every one came out to the wreck and rendered all the assistance in their power, caring for the wounded and taking out those who were killed. Carriages were brought out and the wounded and dead taken to Blackshear. As soon as possible a train containing a number of the wounded was dispatched to Waycross, and a building owned by the injured Mr. Gray is the only death.

rallroad was used as a hospital. The others were taken to Blackshear.

The railroad officials did ali they could for the sufferers. I do not know the exact number of people on the train when it went down. There were several miraculous escapes. The fireman owes his life to the engineer, who prevented him from jump-

At the time of the accident a construction train was standing on the track at l'atterson, and pulled out for the scene of the wreck just as the second section of the fast mail from Savannah reached that station. It was a very fortunate circumstance that the train was so near at hand, and the people on board rendered very valuable service in assisting the unfortunates. The sufferers by the accident were most patient, and made few or no complaints about the management of the railroad authorities.

THE TELEPHONE CASE.

Alexander Graham Beil. WASHINGTON, March 20. - The decision of the supreme court has been announced, and is in favor of the Bell Telephone company on all points aud in all of the cases. Justices Field and Harlan dissent, and Justices Gray and Lamar did not sit in the case. The Bell patents are sustained by a majority of one, the court standing four TFLEPHONE BELL to three. Justice Blatchford in reviewing the charge of fraud and collusion in the patent office hy which Bell, it is alleged, obtained surreptitious information with regard to the inventions of his rival, and then amended his own specifications, held that there was not the slightest evidence to support this charge or to cast the least reflection upon the integrity of Bell or his attorneys.

GENERAL BADEAU.

He is in New York, and Wili Push His Soit Against the Grants.

NEW YORK, March 20.-Gen. Adam Badeau, accompanied by his secretary, Mr. George Corsa, arrived in this city from Washington Sunday forenoon and is now at the Fifth Avenue hotel.

The general comes fully armed and eager for the legal war to be waged against the widow and estate of Gen. Grant. His first move will be a consultation with his lawyers, Messrs. Stanley, Clark and Smith. The finished details of evidence will be supplied to his coonsel from among a large morocco hand bag of documents, which reposes in the secretary's apartment.

The general's visit to this city has been precipitated by the recent publications regarding his suit agasnst Mrs. Grant for compensation for services in the preparation of Gen. Grant's personal memories. He is desirous of presenting his side of the case for public consideration. Since Col. F. D. Grant has seen fit to air the matter in the newspapers, he argues, he will avail himself of the same privilege and make a detailed statement over his own signature in a few days. This statement will embody a sufficient ac count of his literary relations with Gen. Grant since the inceptiou of work on Gen. Badeau's book, "The Military History, of Gen. Grant," and cover the entire period of Grant's illness, when their joint labors were directed to the preparation of the "Memoirs." There will be an explantion of the difference which finally led to the discontinuauce of this association and Badeau's subsequent ineffectual effort to obtain what he claims was his right under an agreement with Gen. Grant.

Gen. Badeau was fatigued after his journey, and denied himself to all but a few personal friends.

A Wee Wonder.

CARROLLTON, O., March 20,-Hundreds of curious people are going to the residence of Henry Lambright, foreman in the Carroll Republican office of this city, to see the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lambright, which was born March 11. The girl baby, which is perfectly formed and remarkably healthy, weighs but two and one-half pounds. Its arms are two and oue-fourth inches iong: legs, three inches; breast measures six and one-half inches; feet, one and one fourth inches long; hands are one inch by one-half inch. A common sized finger ring can be slipped up and down on its little limbs. The doctors say it will certainly live. It can easily sit in a tea cnp. Mr. and Mrs. Lambright are large and well formed people, and the proud possessors of six children, who are all living.

Waiker Blaine's Views. NEW YORK, March 20,-The Tribune prints a letter from Walker Blainere viewing the recent fishery treaty recently made at Washington. Mr. Biaine reviews the fisheries question and says of the poudling treaty that it would tax the ingenuity of man to devise a measure less calculated to inspire our fishermen with confidence for the future so complete, as there was not a sembiance of or to allay the smarts and wounds inflicted in the past. A treaty better devised to bring about the contentions of 1818 could not have been framed. American fishermen will never rest content, and this vexed problem will never find a biding solution save under some such agreement as that of the treaty of 1785 or 1854, honorably enforced and maintained in spirit and letter.

Ice Gorges on the Yellowstone. BILLINGS, Mon., March 20.—Ice gorges are forming on the Yellowstone river on account of the breaking up of the ice. On Saturday night the big bridge of the Rocky Fork railway went out with an ice gorge. Washouts are numerous and streams are rising rapidly. He is assured that the United States is a power without any foreign policy, and one that has no navy to back up its demands or sustain its dignity. There is, therefore, no terror in the small show of force made by several days, in consequence of the heavy the Enterprise. Lewis is treated with con-

Spain has a large comparative interest in Morocco that looks eventually to the conquest by diplomacy rather than force, or by combination of the two, of this ancient African state. Already Spain owns several islands on the Mediterranean coast and forts on the mainland. She would like the opportunity of giving aid to the sulian in opposing the demands of the Unted States if insisted upon, and thus gain a stranger foothold in the country.

What Lewis is aiming at is of more moment than the release of an individual. The Moors pay little attention to foreign rights under treaties and generally impose upon foreigners, reducing trade insecure. And it our commercial interests in Morocco which are involved.

Rumors of a Relapse Confirmed.

BERLIN, March 20.-There is now no doubt that the rumor of the relapse of Emperor Frederick was absolutely true. Extraordinary efforts to prevent the real state of things from being known are now taken, but the secret is out. The correspondents of the London dailies are waiting anxiously and uneasy for further news. The utmost pressure was brought to bear on Prince Blamarck, but he would not pronounce the emperor's condition better. He said for publication: "His majesty's condition was about what might have been expected, if the physicians expected a relapse of a serious nature after the funeral."

This is not encouraging. It is known that the emperor only slept one hour Friday night, and that his rest was broken and unsatisfactory Sunday night. Dr. Mackenzie reports that he is under imperial orders to refuse all information. He wishes it known, however, that he has never predicted the recovery of the emperor.

The ill feeling aroused by the installation of Dr. Mackenzie in the palace has in no degree abated. The doctor ventures no further from the palace than the surrounding these limits he is followed, at the desire of this will be done before Thursday morning. the empress, by two detectives.

It is stated that the marriage of the emperor's son, Prince Henry, of Prussia, to Princess Irene, of Hesse-Darmstadt, which was to take place during the month of May, has been postponed for six months on account of the death of Emperor William. The mouruing decorations with which the public and private buildings were draped, and which cost 150,000 marks, are to be donated to the poor of the city.

BERLIN, March 20 .- Now that the funeral obsequies are over the mind of Germany again reverts to the condition of Emperor Frederick and the future political probabilities. The public fears exaggerates all reports, and the impression is widespread that the emperor's disease is making steady progress, and that he cannot last long enough to materially influence the policy of Bismarck or permit the empress to form a political party, as she is credited with being very desirous of doing. Dependent upon this contingency is the question of war or peace in Europe, in the public mind, and the two questions go together in the public gossip and speculation.

New Work For Messenger Deg-

I met a messenger boy the other day lugging a big eyed and very much untonished baby, evidently not a family connection of his, which, on questioning the boy, I learned he was to deliver at a certain house not far distant. For him this was all in the regular line of his business, and he went about it in a solemnly practical way that was quite admirable. I do not think he loitered with this burden on his hands. As for the parent who entrusted the baby to this method of carriage, he or she must have a confidence in the security of the messenger service that is nothing less than heroid. Yet I do not doubt that the baby got there safe. - Boston Post.

UNDER THE RED FLAG.

Union Labor Party Mass Meeting in Cincinnati Sunday.

CINCINNATI, March 20. -At Central Turner hall Sunday afternoon there was held what was announced as a mass-meeting of the Union Labor party under the Central Labor club's auspices. The hall was profusely deoorated with the blood red Anarchistic colors and incendiary mottoes, and upon each side of the stage hung flery-red silken banners of the two principal Socialistic organizations of the city. The crowd of about one hundred and fifty that finally assembled was called to order by Henry Causey, president of the club, who stated that the meeting had been called in the interest of the Union Labor Samuel Dewire and Hugh Riley then addressed the meeting in English, and Oswald Dietz ln German. By that time A. C. Cosner, chairman of the executive committee of the Union Labor party, announced as one of the principal speekers of the meeting, had arrived. On being introduced, Mr. Cosner excitedly exclaimed: "This hall is decorated in red, red flags are hung here-I will not participate at a meeting under any flag than that of my country, the stars and stripes.' A volume of hisses and groans from the Anarchists, who composed the main body of the meeting, greeted this remark. A number of persons left and the confusion was great.

George Kidd addressed the meeting to the effect that Cosner's action indicated a scheme to injure the labor party. No flags or decorations would deter him from speaking. And he did speak in an incendlary manner for a half hour to the delight of the crowd. Cosner returned, sald he had been mistaken, apologized, and delivered a lengthy speech on current political issues as seen from a Union Labor standpoint, J. Willich, editor of the Cincinneti Zeitung, the Socialistio organ, followed in an out and out Communistic speech that pleased the audience immensely.

ERIN'S PAST AND PRESENT.

Celebration of St. Patrick's Day, March 17, 1888.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I am afraid I will have to ask you to indulge me in my efforts to address you on this occasion; it is my first MIXED roast 25, Rio 20, Java 272, at attempt to speak in public. I have not been able to prepare as I would wish, besides I am suffering a great deal from a severe sold. But, not withstanding these disadvantages, it gives me pleasure to repond to your cull; it is a pleasure, I may say an honor, to any man to be culled upon to make a speech, and especially is it a pleasure for him to becalled upon to speak to a hody of his friends and fellow-citizens, in his native county and town. It is therefore with pleasure that I appear before you. I am pleased to see so many of my irlends present, so many of my good old Irish frien is, and especially am I pleased, am I glad to have so

I first thought I would say something about glorious country, desline I by the Omnipotent to become one of the most prospering, one of the most gigantic and imperishable of nations that ever sprang into existence, that ever grew and flourished upon the face of the Just received, a barge of the celebrated globe. I thought to speak to you of her be-1ry, proud of the generosity of her people, proud of the vast extent of her territory and of the fame, the renown of her free and liberal iustitutions. A model of governments, a pride of nations, illustrative of what a people will become when governed by principles of justice, of equality and true liberty.

I nm almost afraid to touch the subject because when an Irishman understands that he is to hear a at Newport at work on the new railroad. agine something grand, a glowing tribute to the virtues, the giorious memories of his country, and a hurning, a scathing arraignmeut of her enemles. I shall not attempt endeavor to present you with a view of Ireland and her people when under Irish government and contrast this view with a view of Ireland and her people under English rule. I will not go back to the dlm or uncertain period of Irish history. The ancient glory of her people is attested by the many magnificent rulns of castles and towers to be seen npon her to-day-lasting monuments of the advancement in the arts and sciences of her early inhabitants. All bistorians admit, ali evidence points to, the advanced state of uncivilized Ireland, and as sheemerges from ohseurlty, from the time in which her illustrious apostle St. Patrick landed on her shores, and she yields to his glowing eloquence, a convert to the sublime truths which he taught, Ireland has joined in the march of civilized nations and moves on hand is hand with prosperityand wisdom, second to none, and finally takes a place in the lead of the civilized world. and flourishing country, covered with prosper-MRS. THE DEVOURING ELEMENT.

IT HAS A FEAST IN A NEW YORK APARTMENT HOUSE.

Snow in the Streets Delays the Fire Department-One Person Killed and Several Badly Injured-Jacksonville's Loss. Brewery and Distillery Burned.

NEW YORK, March 20,-This morning are engines were summoned to Fifth avenue and Eighty-sixth street, where a five-story apartment house is located.

The fire started in a kitchen on the second floor, at 6:40 a. m., but on account of the huge piles of snow in the streets it was after Florida, 7 o'clock when the first engine arrived, and | by that time the whole interior of the floor was burning. The inmates, who had not nounced. aroused from their beds, were hastily aroused, but so quickly did the flames spread that the escape of many of them was cut off.

On the silis of the upper story windows several men, women and children had taken refuge and were screaming lustily for help. Nettings were stretched on the sidewalks under the windows and a lad leaped from ene of the windows into the net. He was picked up insensible. A revolving aerial ladder was hoisted and a fireman ascended to a third story window with a scaling ladder, which he hung on the sill of the window above. A man who had been waiting for the ladder started to descend by it. Just at that moment a sheet of fire burst through the window at which the fireman, William Quirk, was standing, and to save himself he leaped into the net. His arm was broken and he was rendered insensible.

A ladder was raised for the rescue of Mrs. Frances Westlake, who was at a window on the fifth floor, but before the firemen could reach her she either fell or leaped to the sidewalk. She died instantly. A number of occupants were carried down the stairs or ladit was feared that they were suffocated. It, that it was illegally obtained was forty minutes from the discovery of the fire to the time that the first stream of water be started in Washington. It will be Demowas thrown upon the flames. Many people dropped from the lower windows, and received but slight injuries. At 8:05 the fire was under control.

The following persons were injured: Addie Westlake, aged twenty-four years, severely Louisvslie, Ky., were experimenting to see injured in the back; Isaac Westlake, aged how fast a shotgun can be loaded and nineteen years, concussion of right hip; emptied. Oswaid found out, but the knowl-Frederick Westlake, twenty-two years old, severely injured on the back; Sarah Milner, a servant, twenty-three years old, both hands severely burned; Mrs. Nynberg, fortyeight years old, suffering from shock.

Several people were wounded by jumping from windows, and were taken to the Presbyterian hospital.

Capt. Patrick Donohue, of Engine No. 23, who had charge of the fire, says that when he arrived at the scene Mrs. Westlake, her danghter and her two sons were either hanging from a fourth story window or looking out of it crying piteously for help.

The building is owned by Henry Hillberg. The loss to the building is $15,000, insured. The occupants lost everything. It is not known what their loss will amount to.

Printing Offices Again.

CINCINNATI, March 20.-A fire started in the second floor of the large stone building at 256 Main street shortly before 8 o'clock last night. After a desperate fight the firemeu succeeded in getting it under control, not, however, before the upper floors were pretty well destroyed. The first floor is occupied by Troutman & Fisher, dealers in fludings. Their joss was en tirely by water and will not amount to over $300.

The floors above were occupied by publishing companies, Progressive South, owned by L. A. Leonard; the Labor Age, owned by W. B. Ogden; the Sportsman, owned by Dick Dorman, and the Golden State. The loss is about $10,000, on which there is $7,004 insurance. The building, owned by Mrs. Gibson, and leased to the leather company on the first floor, is only damaged for a small amount, which is fully covered by insurance, C. A. Albrecht & Company, hardware dealers, next door to the burnt huilding, lost about $100 by water.

During the fire Capt. Higginson, of Engine 4, one of the bravest men on the force, fell from a twelve foot wall to the pavement, receiving a severe scalp wound.

Heavy Loss at Jacksonville, Florida.

NEW YORK, March 20 -A special to the Herald from Jacksonville, Fla., says: A fire last night destroyed the warehouses of George F. Drew and the Bradiey Fertizing company; Hazleton's block, Jacksonville Carriage Repository, Clark's plumbing establishment and De Barry's steam office. Loss, $175,000; insurance, $100,000.

Brewery and Distillery Burned. TITUSVILLE, Pa., March 20.—Schwartz's brewery and distillery house were destroyed by fire last night. The fire started in the kitchen of the dwelling, and the family were almost suffocated before it was discovered. Mrs. Schwartz was burnt internally by in haling smoke and flames in attempt to save some household effects. The loss is estimated at $30,000 which is fully insured.

Mother and Daughter Suffocated.

CHICAGO, March 20 .- A fire in a tenement house on Ciark street, early Sunday morning, caufed the death by suffocation of Mrs. Sarah Dalton, aged thirty-nine, and her daughter, Lucy, aged four. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

Charles McCulloch, president of the Hamilton National bank, with his family, are now in Washington city, where they will participate in the celebration of the goiden wedding of Mr.

McCulloch's parents, Hon. and Mrs. Hugh McCulloch, ex-secret Charles McCulloch, McCulloch, ex-secre-HUGH M'CULLOCH, tary of the treasury. The celebration wili be at the ex-secretary's Washington home on the 21st, and will be a strictly family affair. Deserted His Child Wife.

LANCASTER, Pa., March 20.-Henry Sahm, aged twenty-four, and his thirteeu-year-oid wife, of Aliance, O., arrived in this city this morning from the west. They went to a hotel shortly after leaving the train, and afterwards the husband purposely disappeared. The pair were on the road to Reading, and the wife is positive her husband has deserted her. The police are scouring the city for the missing man.
